

PERSONS, SCENES AND EVENTS THAT FIGURE IN THE NEWS OF THE DAY FROM DIVERS SOURCES

REMARKABLE RESULT OF TRAIN'S CRASH INTO AUTOMOBILE.
This light car was struck by a Pennsylvania flyer moving at tremendous speed at the notorious crossing at Croyden, Pa. The driver was cut in two, but, strange to say, the machine suffered but comparatively small damage. Another occupant of the car escaped almost without injury.

HARVEST OF OAK LEAVES TO BE TURNED INTO BATH TOWELS.
One of the odd industries of South Jersey at this time of year is the cutting and drying of oak leaves, an operation requiring much skill. The leaves when thoroughly cured are bought and used by the manufacturers of low-priced bath towels.

MENACING MOUTH OF GUN THAT HELPS TO GUARD CONNECTICUT COAST.
The agitation over "preparedness" has caused many persons to overlook the fact that the coast of the United States is well protected at vital points. The picture shows one of the 12-inch disappearing guns which peers over the earthworks at Fort Wright, off Fishers' Island, New London, Conn.

AUSTRIAN EMPEROR AS GARGOYLE.
Tourists and readers of Hugo will recall the sinister figures mounted on the Cathedral of Notre Dame. A French artist has painted on one of these figures the head of Franz Joseph.

THE KAISER AS ANOTHER GARGOYLE.
Paint and brush have removed the head of the figure from the original photograph and substituted this caricature of Wilhelm II. The bitterness of the artist is evident in his handwork.

AMBASSADOR PAGE'S DAUGHTER WEDS IN LONDON.
Miss Katherine Page, who was married in London recently to Charles Wesley Loring, of Boston, leaving her home with her father, on her way to the Chapel Royal.

RUSSIAN AMBASSADOR HAS AMERICAN WIFE.
Mme. Bakhmeteff is one of the many American women who have married European diplomats. She entertains ex-savily at her Newport home.

"AMERICA'S MOST BEAUTIFUL GIRL" AND HER FIANCE.
Miss Marie Tuller, of New York, who was called by Grand Duke Alexander Michaelovitch, cousin of the Czar, "the most beautiful girl in the world," at the Newport Dog Show with her fiancé, S. Bryce Wing, of New York.